

Franz Morat Group

With more than 100 years experience in metal processing and 50 years as a pioneer in plastic injection molding, Framo Morat and F. Morat – the companies of Franz Morat Group with headquarters in Germany's Hochschwarzwald region (Black forest) – have contributed to the development of many industries over several generations. With subsidiaries in the United States, Poland, Mexico and Turkey and more than 600 employees, our company achieves sales of approximately €80 million. The satisfaction of our customers is our most important task. We stand for quality, innovation and reliability. For our injection molding specialist F. Morat - location Lerma (MX), we are looking for a

Engineer for injection molding tools (male/female)

Your tasks

- Design and optimization of injection molds for technical plastic parts
- Evaluation of measuring results und definition of necessary corrective actions
- General design works like fixture construction
- Close collaboration with internal and external project partners

Your profile

- Successful completed, technically oriented study
- Experience in designing of injection molds with 3-D CAD
- High degree of working independent, self-responsibility and teamwork
- Very good English skills – written and spoken
- German language skills are an advantage

We offer

- An up to 2 years training at our German headquarter is mandatory. You will get to know our processes and build up your own network
- A modern and save working place, within an innovative and growing company
- A performance-focused payment and benefits
- A good work atmosphere

Interested?

We are looking forward to receive your convincing application documents, including your expected salary and possible date of entry. Please send your application to jobs@f-morat.mx.

F. Morat Sistemas de México, S. de R.L de C.V.

Av. Prolongación Industria Automotriz No. 33,
Bodegas L, M y N
Colonia Parque Industrial Lerma,
52000 Lerma, Estado de México

www.gearvalley.com